

Friendship, Leadership, Charity...

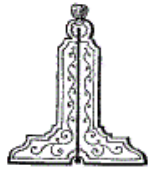

Right here in N is an organization committed to friendship among men and development of leadership skills while contributing to the well-being of our community.

We are the members of LODGENAME Lodge No. LODGE# of TOWN. These Masons (also known as Freemasons) are your neighbors, the men with whom you do business and the leaders of our community.

Members of Masonic Lodges can be found in every free country on earth. We represent a variety of cultures, religious beliefs and professions. And, yet, we meet in peace, harmony and friendship. This is this possible because of the respect we hold for the opinions of our fellow men.

Use of Symbols

The principles of Freemasonry are taught through the use of the tools and implements of the builders of castles and cathedrals in the middle ages. Each provides a lesson in life to make us better men, better husbands, better fathers and better citizens.

Several Masonic Principles

Masonry also encourages members to:

Practice the faith of their choice.
Grow in leadership, education, and tolerance and acceptance of others.
Include families in lodge activities.
Care for Lodge brothers and build lifelong friendships.

Care for others in our community, state, nation and the world.

Live truth in all aspects of their lives at home, work and leisure.

As the oldest and largest fraternal organization in the world, the principles of Freemasonry have survived hundreds of years of political, military and religious strife because of the truth and strength of its teachings.

Your Faith

Freemasonry encourages members to participate in the church of their choice, and respects the right of men to worship as they believe. Our only requirement to join is that you state your belief in a supreme being.

Your Family

Our lodge includes families in several activities throughout the year. Freemasonry believes your family is of high importance to you and our lodge.

Your Self-Improvement

Developing leadership skills, and meeting men with similar values and goals, add up to experiences leading to your self-improvement as well as enjoyment.

Care for Others

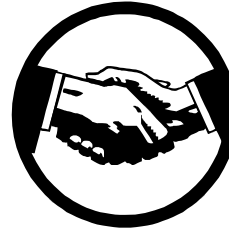

Master Masons pledge to assist each other. As a group, we support a homes for children and retired Masons and their female relatives, and a child identification program.

Care for Your Community

Our lodge is involved in our community, and we are looking for more ways to contribute to its health with the help of other civic-minded men.

Truth

The attainment of truth is our pursuit in honesty of expression, plain dealing and sincerity.

In other words, Freemasonry offers men opportunities to make good friends and help others while nourishing their own value system.

If you are interested in becoming a member, begin by contacting the Master Mason listed below. He will be glad to answer any questions you may have and provide you with the necessary information to start you down the road of membership.
